

CALIFORNIA IS AFRAID OF WEEVIL

Weber county finds itself included in a list of Utah counties upon which the state of California has placed an alfalfa quarantine to prevent the alfalfa weevil from being introduced into that state. An Associated Press dispatch received last night says Governor Johnson signed an order yesterday, at the request of A. J. Cook, director of the agricultural department, declaring an immediate quarantine of alfalfa on the following counties:

Salt Lake, Weber, Tooele, Juab, Utah, Wasatch, Summit, Davis, Morgan, Box Elder, Cache, Rich, also Oneida and Bear Lake counties of Idaho and Uintah county in Wyoming. This means that during the life of the order alfalfa from any of these counties mentioned will be barred from the state of California.

Governor William Spry said last night he had received no communication from the California authorities about the embargo upon Utah alfalfa hay. He agreed with Professor Lewis A. Merrill that California's ruling will work no hardship on Utah, inasmuch as the state has been campaigning to have the farmers keep their alfalfa hay for use at home and not export. Salt of alfalfa seed outside the state is encouraged, and California has made no objection to the shipment thereof.

"California's ruling is really a good thing," said Professor Merrill, the horticultural expert. "We have been preaching against the shipment outside of alfalfa hay. In the first place, it should be kept for use here, and in the second we don't want to cause a spread of the weevil. The state and federal government have been fighting to eradicate the pest and are making excellent progress."

"About ten days ago the California authorities sent an inspector named Merrill to Utah to investigate the alfalfa hay weevil. He was with me much of the time he was here. He conferred with others, and we convinced him that there was no danger in the shipment of the seed. We can keep on shipping the seed to California and we don't want to ship our hay."

THE WORLD'S SIN; THE CHURCH'S SIN

One Redeemer, Christ Jesus, For Both Church and World.

The Bible Nowhere Represents the Devil With Hoofs and Horns and Forked Tail Caving Amid Flames Torturing Hapless Beings.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Berlin, August 18.—Pastor Russell delivered two addresses here today. We report the one from the text, "He is the propitiation for our sins (the Church's), and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." (1 John 1: 2.) He declared that the Devil of the Bible transforms himself into an angel of light in his endeavors to mislead the people of God and to make void the Word of God. The Bible nowhere represents the Devil with hoofs and horns and forked tail caving amid flames of hell, torturing hapless beings—and stoking fire.

The Bible hell is sheol, hades—the tomb, the state of death, where both good and bad go and from which all are to be recovered in due time. The Church will be the first: "Blessed and holy are all they that have part in the First Resurrection; they shall be priests unto God and shall reign with Christ a thousand years—Rev. xx, 6."

During that thousand years all the remainder of the race will have resurrection privileges. The world's resurrection will include not only an awakening from death, but much more. Anastasis, the Greek word for resurrection, means a raising up again—implying that the person was once up, fell down and is to be raised up again.

The Apostle declares that man fell from perfection and the raising up again is to be human perfection. None will be forced to return, but all the willing will be assisted to obedience—the reward of which will be a gradual uplifting to all that was lost in sin and redeemed at Calvary. The devil, after full opportunity, the Pastor declared, will be destroyed in the second death, which the Scripture symbolically represent as the Lake of Fire—Revelation xx 14, 15.

One Redemption—Two Salvations. Pastor Russell called attention to numerous Scriptures which seemed in harmony with his contention that the redemption provided in Jesus is to be co-extensive with the condemnation which came to all through Father Adam. Father Adam alone had been tried, and because of sin, had been sentenced to death. The remainder of humanity have never yet been individually tried. They have merely shared in hereditary weaknesses, mental, moral and physical, and shared also in the hereditary death penalty which involved them in sin, sorrow and pain in conjunction with the ultimate result, death. It is because all were thus condemned through one man's disobedience that the death of the Man Jesus once for all can be justly the redemption-price for the sins of the world.

Christ has died. And the fact that but one class of humanity for whom He died has been blessed should be to us a guarantee that the remainder will be blessed, since "He has tasted death for every man"—Hebrews ii, 9.

Who is so blind as not to be able to see the difference between the Church and the world in our text? It reminds us, said the Pastor, of Jesus' words to His disciples, "Ye are not of the world, even as I am not of the world," "for I have chosen you out of the world."

Not only the Apostles were chosen out of the world and separated by their call and spirit-begetting and development in the School of Christ, but all of the followers of Jesus throughout this Gospel Age have been sharers in this same call to separateness from the world. They walk by faith and not by sight—their faithfulness in living unto the Lord and not for self, is promised the great reward of a share in the Messianic Kingdom glory.

Then when the Church shall have reached her glory will be the time for the world to be blessed. The Church as the spiritual Seed of Abraham (Galatians iii, 29) will with her Redeemer bless all the families of the earth for a thousand years and make good to them their share in the merit of Christ's sacrifice.

Geneva's Monument to Servetus.

The Pastor said that a week before he had been in Geneva and looked at the monuments to Calvin and to Servetus (the Christian brother whom Calvin had crucified to be roasted alive by a slow fire for five hours). The latter monument had been erected by Calvin's followers to show that they had no sympathy with their leader's course in this matter.

Pastor Russell declared that Calvin had not invented the Doctrine of Election, for it was in the Bible fifteen centuries before he was born. He gave him due credit for having made the doctrine prominent.

With the increasing light now shining upon the Bible, said Pastor Russell, we see that the elect Church, when united to her Heavenly Bridegroom will be the Elect Seed of Abraham which God has promised shall bless the non-elect.

MINERS CONFER ON NEW WAGE SCALE

Sheridan, Wyo., Aug. 17.—Representatives of the Northern Wyoming Coal Operators' association and the officers and executive board of district No. 22, United Mine Workers of America, have begun a conference to fix a wage scale to replace the scale now in force, which will expire September 1. The miners are demanding an increase in wages, shorter hours and better working conditions, while the operators insist upon the retention of the present scale of wages and hours of work.

The figures in the scale presented by the miners will not be given out until the conference has proceeded further. The conference is expected to continue several days.

FREIGHT STEAMER STILL ON BEACH

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 17.—The freight steamer Plades, which went ashore on the Lower California coast yesterday, was still on the rocks early today. Point Loma wireless station was in communication with the ship at 12:30 a. m. She reported that the Washnetan and the cruiser Denver were hastening to her assistance. The Plades lies on Cape Nassau.

and her plight is regarded as serious. She carries a crew of 23 men and a cargo of general merchandise for New York.

IRON WORKERS GET RAISE IN FRISCO

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—Labor officials announced today that more than 250 structural iron workers, who recently struck for an increase of $1 per day, had returned to work, the contractors having granted their demands. The new scale is $6 per day. It is said that only forty men of the trade here are idle.

$20,000 FOR USE OF THE REFUGEES

Washington, Aug. 17.—To provide for the increase in the number of American refugees from Mexico, the house today authorized the use for their subsistence of $20,000, to be taken from the $100,000 fund already provided for transportation. The senate has approved.

MAKE NEW RECORD.

PEACEMAKER'S PLEA FAILS.

Provo, Aug. 16.—Guy Matson was found guilty by a jury in Justice C. V. Glazier's court today of battery, committed on A. H. DeLong last Tuesday night. He will receive sentence Monday. Mone Lawhorn, who is charged with a similar offense, will have his trial Monday. The defense advanced by Matson and Lawhorn is that they were acting as peacemakers and trying to separate Richard Kirkwood and DeLong, who, they say, were fighting. They add that it was in the performance of this duty that they were holding the men when arrested.

TO HOLD PRIMARIES.

NOVEL METHODS IN ERECTING BUILDING

Original and unique as are many things accomplished by the Willamette company at Toledo, Ohio, the unusual method of construction employed in the erection of the new transformer station in the center of the big factory buildings has caused considerable comment and interest among contractors.

After the specifications had been approved and contract signed, it occurred to President John N. Willits that to have the material carried through the main gates would block his factory system and more or less cripple the production of Overland cars, interfere with the testers and hold up the installation of new machinery, parts and materials.

It was decided to have all cement, glass, dynamite and other materials carried over the tops of the three-story factory buildings. Derricks were raised and spouts constructed for the work—all of which meant extra expense in the erection of the building. All cement was mixed outside factories and poured through the spouts to the site of the new building.

Moved to song by enthusiasm of the Evening Standard's campaign, one writer in the way of advice to the contestants writes the Campaign Manager the following verses:
You may long for the prizes
The Evening Standard's giving free,
You may guess and make surmises
As to final victory;
You may dream of welcome laurels,
Where your flag of victory floats,
But you will never win an auto
If you don't turn in the votes!

You may speculate on this thing,
You may make a guess on that,
But when others are a-hustling,
Why should you be standing pat?
Make a noise like something doing,
Get the other people's goats,
But you will never take a joy ride
If you don't turn in the votes!

An auto, Pianos, Diamond Rings,
Prizes that are good to hear and see,
All are for you if you win,
And they come to you free;
But remember, says the Wise Man,
You have got to shed your coat,
Roll your sleeves and keep a-bumping
If you want to get the votes!

SPECIAL OFFER AN INCENTIVE TO ALL.

The announcement of the Great Special Offer and the fact that three additional handsome prizes would be awarded to the candidates who put forth an effort during time of offer was received with intense interest by practically every candidate and numbers who have heretofore done but little to strengthen their claims to success have announced themselves as determined to start right out now and win not only one of the extra prizes, but secure the many thousands of extra votes and become contenders for the big prizes. This is the spirit that spells success and during these next days until next Saturday night, August 24, such a scouring of Ogden and throughout its surrounding territory will take place as to show fully that the young women entered in this race and their friends are thoroughly appreciative of the prizes offered and are determined upon their minds to win and that the only word that they know in connection with the contest is "SUCCESS!"

Many friends of the candidates, as soon as they learned of the Big Special Offer hurried to the office to learn every detail in connection with it, that their favorite candidates might realize every benefit in connection with this liberal inducement. The candidates also, visited the office, eager to learn more of the offer, and as one young lady said, "This is certainly a splendid opportunity for anyone who appreciates the value of the prizes. I thought the regular prizes were splendid enough, but with the addition of these extra ones, the chance is too great to be overlooked. You just bet I am going to do my very best work during this offer, and if you never saw anyone try before, you surely will now." This is the spirit that actuates every candidate.

During this Big Special Offer we are going to award three handsome EXTRA PRIZES. To the candidate who earns the largest special offer vote ballot, that is, the candidate who turns in the largest amount of new subscriptions during the offer will be awarded absolutely free a HANDSOME $100 DIAMOND RING. This prize is for both the city and country.

To the two candidates (one in the city and one in the country districts) who earn the largest special offer vote ballot, after the diamond ring has been awarded, we will award an elegant $50.00 Brass Bed. These beds are the last word in bedroom elegance. They are of splendid manufacture, exquisite appearance and add tone and elegance to any home. These prizes are IN ADDITION to the regular prizes. They are extra ones and will be awarded on the merits of work done during this Big Special Offer, which closes Saturday night, August 24. The many thousands of extra votes given on NEW subscriptions during this time make this an unequalled opportunity for a candidate, with a little effort to win an extra prize and in addition earn the extra votes that will enable her to claim one of the very biggest regular prizes in three weeks.

The Diamond Rings are now on display at The Standard Office, while the handsome Brass Beds are on display at the Ogden Furniture Co., Washington street, of whom they were purchased.

SOME OPINIONS OF CONTEST.

One prominent business man came into the Contest Office yesterday and made the following statement in regard to the contest: "The Standard certainly deserves credit for the opportunity it is placing within reach of the young women of this territory. Personally, I would think that any young woman who lacked the little energy and ambition necessary to go out and win one of those prizes, was lacking in appreciation of the better things of life. Every one of the prizes offered are worth an effort and I have only the sincerest admiration for anyone who tries. I want to pay up a subscription for a young lady. I don't know her, but I have heard much of the energetic work she is doing and want to help her. There is much of this outside assistance being given and those who try are the ones who will win."
